NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

The worst snowstorm of the winter has prevailed in northern Vermont for 24 hours.

The tank steamer Philadelphia laden with oil has grounded on the west coast of France. She is in a bad position, and her cargo is sacrificed for the purpose of saving the ship.

Michael Lombard, foreman, and Patrick Ceffe, laborer, were badly injured by a premature explosion of dynamite at Millstone quarry at Worcester, N. Y. Ceffe's condition is dangerous.

A joint session of the Minnesota legislature was held today at which the vote taken yesterday for Moses E. Clapp to be junior United States senator from Minnesota to succeed himself, was confirmed.

At the annual meeting of the Association of American Advertisers held in New York, V. M. Pierce, of Buffalo, has been elected president. A general discussion of the association work occupied most of the session.

President Charles W. Elliott, of Harvard university, and Mrs. Elliott sailed for Europe on the steamer Blucher. Another passenger on the Blucher was Mrs. Robert S. McCormick, wife of the American ambassador to Russia.

The official trial trip of the new armored cruiser Maryland over the Cape Ann course, has been ordered for Wednesday, Jan. 25. The Maryland is required by her contract to make an average speed of 22 knots for four consecutive hours.

There is no truth in the report published in the London Daily Telegraph today in a dispatch from Copenhagen to the effect that King Oscar, of Sweden and Norway, is dangerously ill with facial paralysis. The king is enjoying perfect health.

Three workmen were injured at Burlington, Vt., by the fall of an elevator used in conveying material at the medical college of the University of Vermont, being erected there. John G. Goulette and B. Dominick may not recover. The elevator dropped 60 feet.

Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany, was thrown off a dog cart on Charlotten strasse today but was not hurt. The accident was due to the fact that he horse fell. As soon as the animal was reharnessed the crown prince mounted and drove off.

Max Levy was adjudged guilty of two counts of attempted bribery on was sentenced to serve six months in the house of correction at New Bedford, Mass., on each complaint. Argentine Vineyards.

Wonderful yields of grapes are produced in some Argentine vineyards. "In one vineyard, covering five or six acres, a small train road ran up the middle," writes a traveler. "I asked what that was for, and when told that it was to bring the grapes to the wine press I wondered why they were not carried in baskets. When I learned that off these five or six acres eighty tons of grapes are gathered each year I ceased to think of the trainway, and my wonder was turned to the marvel of the earth's productivity. Eighty tons were the average yield, after house servants, farm and garden servants and peons who drive troops of mules up and down the mountains with ores from the mines had eaten their fill, and the house dogs and the dogs of the servants and peons and also a vast number of the little silver gray foxes which crowded in yearly from all corners of the desert during the grape season and birds that came from all places. There was enough and plenty for all of these and then eighty tons besides."

A Curious Legend.

Easy abbey, the ruins of which lie close to the river Swale, a short distance from Richmond, in Yorkshire, England, is the home of a curious legend, says Photography. One of the main walls of the building is cracked and toppling, but has not yet fallen to the ground. Nor do the natives expect it to do so, at least not until it receives the impulse which it is said to await. For a tradition relates that the wall, when it does fall, will bury in its ruins a newly married couple, and as the tale is well known the chance of a honeymooning pair resting beneath its shade is remote.

Justified.

City Editor—Why do you say he ran into the police station "putting and blowing?" "Putting" and "blowing" are synonymous. Reporter—Not at all. There's a vast difference—for instance, between putting a man up and blowing him up.—Philadelphia Ledger.

His Matches.

"You told me this horse had won half a dozen matches against some of the best horses in the country. He can't trot a mile in six minutes to save him." "It was in plowing matches that he took the prize, sir."
